

Who is the DDA	Major Milestones	Current Initiatives
A special taxing authority Quasi-governmental	NW corridor Performing Arts Center Museum, and the garage, and the Library	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wave Streetcar • Urban Oasis Program
Bonding Capacity / eminent domain power	Bond in 1999 for premium transit, the TMA Trolley, Streetscape and Parks	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Utility Box Wrap • Downtown Kiosks
Focus on EDC	The Fountain at Haz. Park is Bubier Park	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Riverwalk Eastern Connection / Las Olas • Pedestrian Way finding
Facilitate partnerships between Public And Private	The Park became a gift from the DDA	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Demographic Clearing House • Own the PACA Garage
Incubator Agency	Park Development to include future development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Events / Downtown Activation
		Ownership of Projects has to flow with the community

Current Partnerships	Project Benefits	Research
Urban Oasis Across from FAU HEC Tower	Create 1200 Jobs, 50 full time jobs	The managed approach of urban development
The Fence project	Encourage private investment	Go to the CRA development of Dania Beach
Interactive Kiosk and mobile map Real time info on transit	Connect Points of interest	Go to the Agenda Package for the city of Miramar
The Wave Project – an Electric streetcar Partnership based fdot, DDA, BC, Ft. Laud.		The concept of the private sector is to promote
Art and Science Centers are up grading	Note: there is a lot of comparison with Portland’s Pearl District	Ft laud approach is to do bonds